

The Weather.
Forecast for Wednesday and Thursday: Kentucky—Fair Wednesday and Thursday; cool in northern portion Wednesday; Indiana—Fair and cooler Wednesday; Thursday fair, moderate west to north-west winds.
Tennessee—Fair Wednesday and Thursday; not much change in temperature.

THE LATEST.

James McMahon, a farmer living near Kansas City, Kan., made a confession yesterday that he had committed one of the most horrible murders in the annals of crime in Kansas. He confessed to having killed his two sisters, Rose McMahon and Mrs. Alonzo Van Royen, and his brother-in-law, Alonzo Van Royen, at the Van Royen residence, about one year ago. The murders were the result of a family quarrel of long standing. In making the confession McMahon declared he was insane when he committed the acts.

The ballot dispute in New York was promptly acted upon by the courts. At noon yesterday Supreme Court Justice Gerard decided that the Independence League convention which placed William J. Gaynor, the Democratic nominee for Mayor, in nomination as an independent party candidate, was not a valid convention, and ordered the names of Mr. Gaynor and of his associate nominees from the column.

The little city of Hickman yesterday entertained for an hour the President of the United States and the distinguished party accompanying him down the Mississippi River. The President was too hoarse to make an extended speech, but thanked his hearers for his welcome and renewed his promise to lead the fight for deep waterways.

United States District Attorney Sims yesterday filed a petition in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago asking that John R. Walsh, convicted of misapplying the funds of the Chicago National Bank, of which he was president, be taken into custody and a continuance of his bail denied.

Reports that Mrs. John Jacob Astor has brought suit in New York for a legal separation from her husband, Col. John Jacob Astor, were neither denied nor affirmed by C. H. Young, who is said to have been appointed a referee in the case. Mr. Young declined to discuss the case in any of its phases.

Leon De La Grange, the French aviator, flying a Blériot monoplane at Doncaster, England, broke the world's speed record. He traveled a mile and 860 yards in one minute and forty-seven and one-fifth seconds. This was at the rate of nearly fifty-four miles an hour.

Harry K. Thaw's contention that he was illegally committed to the Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, following his acquittal on the charge of murdering Stanford White in New York City, was overruled yesterday by the Court of Appeals of New York.

The Supreme Court of Illinois held yesterday that the city of Chicago was responsible for cars burned in the railroad riots in Chicago in 1894, whether or not they were owned by the company on whose tracks they stood when destroyed.

The E. O. Eshelby Tobacco Company, of Cincinnati, brought suit in the United States Circuit Court at Cincinnati against the Burley Tobacco Society, Clarence LeBus, president, and Alonzo Ferguson, asking $195,000 damages under the Sherman anti-trust law.

John Eagle was arrested on a farm four miles west of Vincennes, Ind., by officers from Washington, Ind., where he is wanted for alleged connection with an assault on Blanche Wise, an 11-year-old girl, and was started back to Washington late last night.

Thirty-four lives were lost in the wreck of the Donaldson Line steamer Hestia, which went ashore on the Old Proprietor ledge, off Seal Cove, Grand Manan Island, off the coast of Maine. Four of those lost were boys. Only six persons were saved.

French banking circles consider it unlikely that the Bank of France will be called upon to come to the relief of the international money market. According to their view, conditions are not alarming.

William J. Enloe, of Butte, Neb., was the first name drawn from the pile of envelopes in the United States land drawing for land in the Cheyenne and Standing Rock Indian reservations.

Gen. Oliver O. Howard died at Burlington, Vt., of heart disease last night. He was the last of the Union army commanders of the Civil War and was 79 years old.

Concessions to Germany to facilitate the trade with this country when the German tariff agreement expires on February 7 next were announced by the Treasury Department yesterday.

Five children lost their lives early yesterday in a fire which destroyed the girls' college of the Presbyterian Church orphanage at Lynchburg, Va.

Col. Theodore A. Dodge, the military historian, of New York and Paris, died yesterday at Versailles, France. He was born at Pittsfield, Mass., in 1842.

HICKMAN BASKS IN TAFT SMILE

President Greeted by Big Crowd of Kentuckians. Renews His Promise To Aid River Improvement.

Voice Too Husky To Make Long Speech.

RIVER TRIP WELL UNDER WAY.

Hickman, Ky., Oct. 26.—(Special).—President William Howard Taft packed up this little town to-day with 12,000 people gathered from three States to look upon the Chief Executive and the notables and dignitaries of the six boats comprising the fleet, which is bearing the distinguished men to New Orleans on the bosom of the Mississippi.

The Mississippi River, her betterment and improvement, was the keynote of President Taft's address and those of the other speakers. Gov. A. E. Wilson, one of the Governors in the big river party, acted as introducer for Congressman Ollie James, Senator William O. Bradley and R. T. Tyler, prominent here.

Little Time Wasted.

It was 4:45 o'clock before President Taft put foot on Kentucky soil for the first time since taking office. Hickman is to be President Taft's only stopping place in the Commonwealth on this "River Trip." The President's little time was wasted in getting down to the business of the day. Speaker Jos. Cannon, with a cigar stump buried in his white whiskers, followed the President ashore in the van of several hundred Senators, Congressmen, river improvement men, Governors and foreign Ambassadors. While many were still gazing down the gangplank, Gov. Wilson extended Kentucky's greetings.

The President's Speech.

"I take a great pleasure in gazing into the face of the great river, Kentucky," said the President. "You are here to celebrate the beginning of a movement to improve the rivers. Kentucky, Tennessee, and the Ohio, is more than interested in such a movement. If it is one thing in the world that Kentucky is full of it is oratory and I'm going to let some of your best talk to you."

Ovation For James.

Congressman James was given the ovation of the day, baring not even Mr. Taft, by these constituents of his here in the First district. Congressman James went ashore with a crowd of about 200 men and guests with the President rowing with laughter when he knelt named President Taft. "Reliability" in his address. "This man may stick, as the newspaper men rushed it to the entire country through the telegraph office here."

Parade Called Off.

By this time it was 5:15 o'clock. Although the day was waiting, the parade through Clinton street was called off. With about the same systematized rapid-fire sort of action as characterized the beginning, came the ending of Hickman's one biggest day. Capt. "Archie" Butt arose when the speaker had closed and wheeled about along with President Taft and James Sloane, Jr., the President's bodyguard. The company was informed that it was past time for leaving and the parade feature would have to be eliminated. All of the President's party went aboard their respective boats.

In a few minutes the boat flying the President's flag was backing out into the river. In no time the entire river pageant was strung out on its way to Memphis, the next stop.

MURDERED TWO KOREA'S FRIEND

Trip To Harbin On Mission of Peace. Shot Down As He Alights From Train.

Posthumous Honors To Be Highest Possible.

ONE OF WORLD'S GREAT MEN.

Tokio, Oct. 26.—Hirobumi Ito, a Prince of Japan, but the greatest commoner in the empire, and for two years the uncrowned ruler of Korea, who, hoping to rebuild that country, stood between Korea and the degradation of immediate annexation, was assassinated by Koreans to-day just as he alighted from a special train at Harbin, Manchuria, to which he went from Tokyo in his capacity as President of the Privy Council, on a mission of peace.

Policy Not Disclosed.

Undoubtedly Prince Ito intended to inaugurate and enforce a distinct policy in Manchuria, but the exact nature of this was not disclosed.

Death of Prince Ito will not change the policies of Japan. The pacific motives of Prince Ito will be maintained and the traditions left by him will always be followed.

The entire nation is mourning. The flags on the foreign embassies have been placed at half mast, while all public and many private functions have been abandoned.

The Japanese and foreign newspapers appear with black borders. Only the death of the Emperor could arouse similar demonstrations of sympathy.

Perhaps Prince Ito's death causes more universal sincerity and grief because he was idolized by the masses as the great counselor of the Emperor, the creator of the Cabinet and the friend of the Emperor himself.

The boy Crown Prince of Korea is reported to have been inconsolable when the news of the assassination by Koreans of his aged grand tutor was broken to him.

For the last two years the Crown Prince has been a resident of Japan and the frequent companion of Prince Ito.

Not only Lancashire, but the entire country is to be convulsed at once for membership. The board of directors, made up of the officers and committee members, will hold semi-monthly meetings, the first regular meeting being held on November 1st.

The association is to issue at once attractive literature advertising what Lancashire and Garrard county have and what they most need.

The newspapers without exception editorially express sympathy and horror at the act, pointing out that Prince Ito was a man of peace, and even in the face of opposition at home, he looked for the regeneration of Korea, and endeavored to alleviate the evils of the condition.

Intimate friends of the murdered statesman are too stunned to discuss the situation, but the opinion of the belief that the death of the Prince will have no immediate effect on the policy toward Korea, but that Prince Ito's wishes and hopes probably will influence the policies of Japan for many years.

Stand Defiantly Awaiting Arrest. After Accomplishing Purpose.

Harbin, Oct. 26.—Prince Hirobumi Ito was assassinated at the Tsaitan railway station here to-day. At the moment the Japanese diplomat was acknowledging the noisy welcome that had greeted him as he stepped down from the coach that he had occupied for the last two days.

When counsel for the defense made the statement above given the United States District Attorney fairly shouted that he knew nothing of such an agreement as counsel alleged, and if it were true, the status of the case would be changed.

Through the alleged dealings of Grossman the bank is said to have lost over $50,000.

HOPE FOR RECOVERY OF MIDSHIPMAN WILSON.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 26.—(Special).—The condition of Midshipman Earl D. Wilson, who was injured at Annapolis in a football game recently, has so improved that he will be operated upon by the physicians there within the next few days.

Relatives here received telegrams from the father, former County Clerk Wesley Wilson, to-day which say that his son is getting better and that he has every hope that he will live.

KANSAS FARMER MURDERS HIS TWO SISTERS

And Brother-In-Law, Near Kansas City, Kan. Tells In Detail How He Perpetrated Crime.

RESULT OF FAMILY QUARREL.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

CONFESSES TO HORRIBLE DEED

Kansas Farmer Murders His Two Sisters And Brother-In-Law, Near Kansas City, Kan. Tells In Detail How He Perpetrated Crime.

RESULT OF FAMILY QUARREL.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under examination that he had a personal grudge against the Japanese statesman, who while resident General in Korea, had caused the execution of several of the murderer's friends.

Assassins Looked Like Japs.

It had been supposed that the police protection for the Prince was adequate, but the police stated later that they have been inspired by a patriotic motive and to believe that Japanese wrongs to Koreans justified his admitted under

REACHING THE RENTING AGENT

HOUSE HUNTING is made easy by the use of the Telephone.

Few people realize how much business they can do and how quickly they can do it over the wire. It is not even necessary to be in the same town, because the Long Distance Service of the Bell System brings every one within talking distance.

In all the business and social affairs of life, people put their trust in the Bell Service because it is universal.

The demand is not for cheap telephone service, but for RELIABLE and COMPREHENSIVE telephone service.

Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company Incorporated.
Every Bell Telephone is the Center of the System.

MINED IN KENTUCKY

Render Coal

RENDERS GOOD SERVICE.
RENDERS A SAVING IN PRICE.
RENDERS AN OPPORTUNITY To Promote Home Industry.

Render Lump - $3.00
Render Nut - $2.85
PER TON—2,000 POUNDS.

Central Coal and Iron Co.

339 W. MARKET STREET. Both Phones 157.
Yards Fifteenth and Delaware and Brook and Washington Sts.

30 YEARS

OF CLOSE APPLICATION have placed W. J. Hughes & Sons Co. in the FRONT RANK of SATISFACTORY DISTRIBUTERS OF BUILDING GOODS.

RESULT—They have assembled in their big warehouses and dry sheds about every item you need to build a fine residence, storehouse, barn or any sort of structure.

SASH DOORS COLUMNS STAIRWAYS

All kinds LUMBER—All grades.

W. J. Hughes & Sons Co.

14th and Maple Sts., Louisville, Ky.

RECEPTION

GIVEN LAST NIGHT IN HONOR OF THE REV. W. R. HENDRIX.

Members of His Congregation Spoke in Highest Terms of Work Accomplished.

In the parlors of the Methodist Temple, Sixth street and Broadway, a reception was given last night to Dr. W. R. Hendrix and family, it being a custom each year to tender a reception and social to the present pastor or the successor.

The address of welcome was given by Charles Graves, who, in a fitting manner, spoke of the good work that had been done the past year. He spoke of the debt of $25,000, which had been lifted by the untiring work of the board of trustees.

Of the three years Dr. Hendrix has been pastor he has been the most successful, this year, despite his illness of last winter.

Dr. Hendrix responded to the address of welcome. He said in part:

"The words of the speaker have touched the responsive chords of my heart. A young man to-day who gives himself to the ministry must give himself absolutely to his church and be of the people, by the people and for the people, zealous of good works, and efforts to build up a great and strong church."

"We hope by spring to make many changes in our auditorium; we want to grow. Our parlor the past year has been open every night, leaving no excuse for the young man or woman to roam up and down the streets with a weary heart."

Following the address by Dr. Hendrix, a splendid musical program was given by the younger members of the church and refreshments were served.

WILL SOON MAIL FOR NEW POST IN VIENNA.

Consul General Charles Denby and Mrs. Denby Visiting In Evansville.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Charles Denby, until recently Consul General from the United States to Shanghai, China, and who was transferred by President Taft to Vienna, will spend ten days in Evansville with his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Denby will be the guests of Mrs. Denby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Orr, on Upper First street. They will go from here to New York, from where they will sail for Vienna.

"I spent somewhere like thirty-five years in China, having first went there with my father, who was United States Minister to that country," said Mr. Denby here in an interview. "I had begun to feel at home there when I received notice of my being transferred to Vienna. I have never been in Austria, but from what I have heard I believe I will like Vienna."

"China seems to be opening up a great deal like Japan did a few years ago, and I believe there is a great fu-

BULLET IN HEAD

A. C. Alexander, Prison Guard, Commits Suicide.

DEED COMMITTED IN FRANKFORT BOARDING-HOUSE.

SMITH ESTATE DIVIDED ACCORDING TO LAW.

APPELLATE COURT DECISION.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—A. C. Alexander, of Owen county, a guard at the penitentiary here, committed suicide at the boarding-house of Mrs. Nannie Calvert at the corner of Ann and Meru streets shortly after 6 o'clock this morning by shooting himself through the head. Alexander had been in bad health for some time, and this made him despondent. He was on the night shift at the prison, but did not work last night, having drawn his pay from Clerk W. S. Hawkins amounting to $9.38. He said that he believed that he would go back home to Owen county to rest up and get in shape to work again.

Alexander spent all of Monday at Mrs. Calvert's, where he made his home, and was treated by Dr. Phillips, who says that the man was suffering with his stomach and liver. He was not a drinking man, but seemed to be all run down. Mrs. Calvert nursed him and gave him every attention, and on Monday night his two roommates, Messrs. Stuart and Kearney, administered his medicine and did what they could, for all perceived that he was not a well man.

Mrs. Calvert has breakfast at 6 o'clock, as many of her boarders go to work early. Alexander was at the breakfast table with the others, but ate very little. He said that he would catch the 6:30 Frankfort and Cincinnati train for Lexington, to make connection for Corinth, Grant county, where he would get on the train for his home in Owen county, driving the rest of the way.

Mr. Kearney, one of Mr. Alexander's roommates, ran upstairs and opened the door. He saw Alexander lying on the floor with the blood pouring from a pistol wound in the top of his head. He was on his back, his feet a little way under the bed and near his right hand on the floor was a revolver.

Lived Ten Minutes.

Capt. Alexander was not dead when discovered and lived for about ten minutes, though unconscious.

Capt. Alexander was an old guard at the State prison here, having served several terms before his latest appointment, which was over two years ago. He was regarded as a very competent and reliable man and everyone liked him. His family is said to be quite a prominent one in Owen county.

His brother, Riley Alexander, was notified, and it is expected that he will come here to take the body back to his home for burial.

Court of Appeals.

By a decision of the Court of Appeals in Louisville, in litigation, is divided accordingly to law. There were two cases before the court. One was Kate Josephine Smith against Emma Smith, and the other same against Mary Smith. The court here holds that Emma Smith, the mother, does not share in the proceeds from the sale of certain property held in trust for the family, but that Mary Smith, widow of one of the brothers, is entitled to her share.

The court reversed the judgment of the Mason Circuit Court in the case of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad against A. A. Lang's administrator. Lang was a track-walker and was killed by a train on a trestle while on the veranda, where they were working damages amounting to $2,000. The reversal was for errors of instruction.

In the case of Louisville Dry Goods Company against J. W. Lannan, on appeal from Mercer county, the court reverses. Lannan was a merchant at Louisville. The company sued him for $500 for goods sold at a time when Lannan had been declared insolvent. He executed a mortgage to the Union Bank and soon filed a petition in bankruptcy. The court here says that the bankruptcy court did not assume jurisdiction of the estate within the time required and the State Court could require the property to be sold and the proceeds applied to the debts of Lannan.

Judgment of the Campbell Circuit Court was affirmed in the case of the Cincinnati, Newport and Covington Railway Company against R. B. Cooke. Cooke was a contractor who was paid $750 for the injuries received by his daughter, who fell over an obstruction and broke the jaw of her neck.

The sentence of twenty-one years imposed upon Nelson Burch, of Fayette county, was affirmed. He killed George Cary and was convicted of manslaughter.

Election Case On Appeal.

In an effort to have his name placed on the ballot in Breckinridge county as a candidate for Circuit Clerk, J. C. Brodie, through his attorneys, today filed an appeal from the decision of the lower court which denied him the right. The case is styled: J. C. Brodie against W. F. Hook, clerk of the Breckinridge County Court. Brodie's name was stricken off the list of nominees fifteen days before the election. He sought to have the clerk compelled by mandamus to place the name on the ballot. Losing the case in Breckinridge county he came here to lay the case before the court.

Of Course You Want HEALTH—That's natural, and LANE'S LIVER PILLS will positively help you get it. Thousands have verified this—why not you. Try them tonight. At Drug Stores, 25 Cents.

BRIGHT YOUNG DEMOCRAT WHO IS MAKING A WINNING RACE FOR STATE LEGISLATURE

Guest of Governors.

The President to-night was the guest of the Governors who are making the trip down the river on the steamer St. Paul, which immediately follows the Oleaner. He had been invited to dinner last night, but was so fatigued and worn out from the effort of speaking several times in St. Louis that he begged to be excused until this evening.

The St. Paul was brought up in mid-stream alongside the Oleaner, and this evening and lashed there while he and his party were conducted on board. The same proceeding was gone through to-day, shortly after the fleet left Cairo, and the President was presented with a possum, already cooked and surrounded by delicious sweet potatoes, ready to be served at his luncheon table. While the possum was being transferred to the Oleaner, the band on the St. Paul played the old negro melody "Carve that Possum; Carve Him to the Heart."

Although the impression has gained ground since the Atlanta dinner of last winter that the President would not be in St. Louis, to-day was only the third time he has eaten it. Although enjoying the novelty of the dish, Mr. Taft has admitted to the most intimate friends that he does not altogether "hanker" after it as a steady article of diet.

Hitchcock and Nagel Join Taft.

Leaving Cairo to-day, Postmaster General Hitchcock and Secretary of Labor, who had made the trip from St. Louis to Cairo on the steamer Erastus Wells, joined the President on the Oleaner. They also were guests of the Governors at dinner tonight. Secretary of War Dickinson will rejoin the President's party at Memphis to-morrow.

Postmaster General Hitchcock nearly got left this morning at Cape Girardeau. He had started for the normal school, where President Taft made a speech, just as the sun was showing itself as a red ball leaping above the eastern horizon, and had about reached his destination when the party, with him whizzed past him in automobiles on the return trip to the boats.

When the President and General Hitchcock reached the river bank all of the boats were out in the stream. His plight was quickly discovered, however, and Erastus Wells put back to pick him up.

Makes Early Speech.

The President arose before daylight to keep his appointment at Cape Girardeau. It was his earliest speech of the trip, and he decided he would enjoy the novelty of speaking to the rising sun. The President said he also enjoyed the novelty at Cape Girardeau of being escorted to the speaking stand by a man larger than himself, attributing that distinction to Eugene Rogers, chairman of the reception committee, who was the President's superior in height and almost if not quite his equal in breadth.

He has sons named for President McKinley and President Roosevelt.

Whenever the President's boat passed to-day a point of the river near a settlement, the banks were lined with people who shouted a greeting to him over the water.

The zig-zag course taken by the Oleaner in following the channel which leads from one side of the river to the other often took President Taft within speaking distance of those gathered on high noon on the trip down the river, who were up late last night to see the fleet go by, seemed almost to come from the very depths of the earth.

Flights of wild ducks and geese frightened from the river bars by the passing boats were an interesting feature of the day. Two boats of the fleet, the St. Paul and the Erastus Wells, touched sandbars last night, but slid over them with but little delay.

Passing the congressional boat, which it was stated in St. Louis had been proposed to the President, the President to-day called out to Speaker Cannon on the hurricane deck. "If you catch anybody blushing, let me know," he said.

A. Y. ARONSON.

CAIRO'S BIGGEST CROWD

Greeted President Taft and Party Accompanying Him.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 26.—The roaring cannon of the Leavitt battery, stationed on barges in the Ohio river, opposite this city, gave notice to-day when the presidential train rounded Cairo, that the President and his party were on their way to Memphis.

When the Oleaner had tied up to the wharf, the crowd of thousands of people, Mayor George Parsons, boarded the flag ship and escorted President Taft from one State to another when the franchise section of the resolutions reads:

"We affirm that the ballot may be an incentive to good citizenship. We believe that the qualifications for suffrage should be based upon intelligence, not upon sex or any other insurmountable obstacle."

Total abstinence is again made the watchword of the organization.

A significant paragraph is the one which asks Congress for "entire abstinence from the sale of intoxicating liquors by placing under Federal control the shipment of liquors from one State to another when the consignee is not a legal dealer" and "to prohibit the issuance of internal revenue tax receipt unless the applicant shows that he has complied with the requirements of the law of his State."

President Taft is asked to use his prerogative and abolish the sale of intoxicating liquors in the Panama Canal zone.

Child labor is denounced and the organization is pledged to secure a minimum working age by Federal enactment.

FURS

Guest of Governors.

The President to-night was the guest of the Governors who are making the trip down the river on the steamer St. Paul, which immediately follows the Oleaner. He had been invited to dinner last night, but was so fatigued and worn out from the effort of speaking several times in St. Louis that he begged to be excused until this evening.

The St. Paul was brought up in mid-stream alongside the Oleaner, and this evening and lashed there while he and his party were conducted on board. The same proceeding was gone through to-day, shortly after the fleet left Cairo, and the President was presented with a possum, already cooked and surrounded by delicious sweet potatoes, ready to be served at his luncheon table. While the possum was being transferred to the Oleaner, the band on the St. Paul played the old negro melody "Carve that Possum; Carve Him to the Heart."

Although the impression has gained ground since the Atlanta dinner of last winter that the President would not be in St. Louis, to-day was only the third time he has eaten it. Although enjoying the novelty of the dish, Mr. Taft has admitted to the most intimate friends that he does not altogether "hanker" after it as a steady article of diet.

Hitchcock and Nagel Join Taft.

Leaving Cairo to-day, Postmaster General Hitchcock and Secretary of Labor, who had made the trip from St. Louis to Cairo on the steamer Erastus Wells, joined the President on the Oleaner. They also were guests of the Governors at dinner tonight. Secretary of War Dickinson will rejoin the President's party at Memphis to-morrow.

Postmaster General Hitchcock nearly got left this morning at Cape Girardeau. He had started for the normal school, where President Taft made a speech, just as the sun was showing itself as a red ball leaping above the eastern horizon, and had about reached his destination when the party, with him whizzed past him in automobiles on the return trip to the boats.

When the President and General Hitchcock reached the river bank all of the boats were out in the stream. His plight was quickly discovered, however, and Erastus Wells put back to pick him up.

Makes Early Speech.

The President arose before daylight to keep his appointment at Cape Girardeau. It was his earliest speech of the trip, and he decided he would enjoy the novelty of speaking to the rising sun. The President said he also enjoyed the novelty at Cape Girardeau of being escorted to the speaking stand by a man larger than himself, attributing that distinction to Eugene Rogers, chairman of the reception committee, who was the President's superior in height and almost if not quite his equal in breadth.

He has sons named for President McKinley and President Roosevelt.

Whenever the President's boat passed to-day a point of the river near a settlement, the banks were lined with people who shouted a greeting to him over the water.

The zig-zag course taken by the Oleaner in following the channel which leads from one side of the river to the other often took President Taft within speaking distance of those gathered on high noon on the trip down the river, who were up late last night to see the fleet go by, seemed almost to come from the very depths of the earth.

Flights of wild ducks and geese frightened from the river bars by the passing boats were an interesting feature of the day. Two boats of the fleet, the St. Paul and the Erastus Wells, touched sandbars last night, but slid over them with but little delay.

Passing the congressional boat, which it was stated in St. Louis had been proposed to the President, the President to-day called out to Speaker Cannon on the hurricane deck. "If you catch anybody blushing, let me know," he said.

A. Y. ARONSON.

CAIRO'S BIGGEST CROWD

Greeted President Taft and Party Accompanying Him.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 26.—The roaring cannon of the Leavitt battery, stationed on barges in the Ohio river, opposite this city, gave notice to-day when the presidential train rounded Cairo, that the President and his party were on their way to Memphis.

When the Oleaner had tied up to the wharf, the crowd of thousands of people, Mayor George Parsons, boarded the flag ship and escorted President Taft from one State to another when the franchise section of the resolutions reads:

"We affirm that the ballot may be an incentive to good citizenship. We believe that the qualifications for suffrage should be based upon intelligence, not upon sex or any other insurmountable obstacle."

Total abstinence is again made the watchword of the organization.

A significant paragraph is the one which asks Congress for "entire abstinence from the sale of intoxicating liquors by placing under Federal control the shipment of liquors from one State to another when the consignee is not a legal dealer" and "to prohibit the issuance of internal revenue tax receipt unless the applicant shows that he has complied with the requirements of the law of his State."

President Taft is asked to use his prerogative and abolish the sale of intoxicating liquors in the Panama Canal zone.

Child labor is denounced and the organization is pledged to secure a minimum working age by Federal enactment.

FURS

Guest of Governors.

The President to-night was the guest of the Governors who are making the trip down the river on the steamer St. Paul, which immediately follows the Oleaner. He had been invited to dinner last night, but was so fatigued and worn out from the effort of speaking several times in St. Louis that he begged to be excused until this evening.

The St. Paul was brought up in mid-stream alongside the Oleaner, and this evening and lashed there while he and his party were conducted on board. The same proceeding was gone through to-day, shortly after the fleet left Cairo, and the President was presented with a possum, already cooked and surrounded by delicious sweet potatoes, ready to be served at his luncheon table. While the possum was being transferred to the Oleaner, the band on the St. Paul played the old negro melody "Carve that Possum; Carve Him to the Heart."

Although the impression has gained ground since the Atlanta dinner of last winter that the President would not be in St. Louis, to-day was only the third time he has eaten it. Although enjoying the novelty of the dish, Mr. Taft has admitted to the most intimate friends that he does not altogether "hanker" after it as a steady article of diet.

Hitchcock and Nagel Join Taft.

Leaving Cairo to-day, Postmaster General Hitchcock and Secretary of Labor, who had made the trip from St. Louis to Cairo on the steamer Erastus Wells, joined the President on the Oleaner. They also were guests of the Governors at dinner tonight. Secretary of War Dickinson will rejoin the President's party at Memphis to-morrow.

Postmaster General Hitchcock nearly got left this morning at Cape Girardeau. He had started for the normal school, where President Taft made a speech, just as the sun was showing itself as a red ball leaping above the eastern horizon, and had about reached his destination when the party, with him whizzed past him in automobiles on the return trip to the boats.

When the President and General Hitchcock reached the river bank all of the boats were out in the stream. His plight was quickly discovered, however, and Erastus Wells put back to pick him up.

Makes Early Speech.

The President arose before daylight to keep his appointment at Cape Girardeau. It was his earliest speech of the trip, and he decided he would enjoy the novelty of speaking to the rising sun. The President said he also enjoyed the novelty at Cape Girardeau of being escorted to the speaking stand by a man larger than himself, attributing that distinction to Eugene Rogers, chairman of the reception committee, who was the President's superior in height and almost if not quite his equal in breadth.

He has sons named for President McKinley and President Roosevelt.

Whenever the President's boat passed to-day a point of the river near a settlement, the banks were lined with people who shouted a greeting to him over the water.

The zig-zag course taken by the Oleaner in following the channel which leads from one side of the river to the other often took President Taft within speaking distance of those gathered on high noon on the trip down the river, who were up late last night to see the fleet go by, seemed almost to come from the very depths of the earth.

Flights of wild ducks and geese frightened from the river bars by the passing boats were an interesting feature of the day. Two boats of the fleet, the St. Paul and the Erastus Wells, touched sandbars last night, but slid over them with but little delay.

Passing the congressional boat, which it was stated in St. Louis had been proposed to the President, the President to-day called out to Speaker Cannon on the hurricane deck. "If you catch anybody blushing, let me know," he said.

A. Y. ARONSON.

CAIRO'S BIGGEST CROWD

Greeted President Taft and Party Accompanying Him.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 26.—The roaring cannon of the Leavitt battery, stationed on barges in the Ohio river, opposite this city, gave notice to-day when the presidential train rounded Cairo, that the President and his party were on their way to Memphis.

When the Oleaner had tied up to the wharf, the crowd of thousands of people, Mayor George Parsons, boarded the flag ship and escorted President Taft from one State to another when the franchise section of the resolutions reads:

"We affirm that the ballot may be an incentive to good citizenship. We believe that the qualifications for suffrage should be based upon intelligence, not upon sex or any other insurmountable obstacle."

Total abstinence is again made the watchword of the organization.

A significant paragraph is the one which asks Congress for "entire abstinence from the sale of intoxicating liquors by placing under Federal control the shipment of liquors from one State to another when the consignee is not a legal dealer" and "to prohibit the issuance of internal revenue tax receipt unless the applicant shows that he has complied with the requirements of the law of his State."

President Taft is asked to use his prerogative and abolish the sale of intoxicating liquors in the Panama Canal zone.

Child labor is denounced and the organization is pledged to secure a minimum working age by Federal enactment.

My Fall Woolens are ready for your choosing.

Walsh Tailoring

110 Fourth St., Louisville.

Courier-Journal.

Published—
DAILY, SUNDAY AND WEEKLY.

Office, cor. Fourth Ave. and Green st.

A Consolidation of
THE LOUISVILLE DAILY JOURNAL.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 24, 1930.

LOUISVILLE DAILY DEMOCRAT.
Louisville, Ky., 1843.

MORNING COURIER.
Louisville, Ky., June 3, 1844.

First issued as the Courier-Journal November 8, 1908.

Rates.
Daily edition, one year, $5.00
Daily and Sunday edition, one year, 7.00
Daily and Sunday, one month, .75
Weekly edition, one year, 1.00

To City Subscribers.
Daily, delivered, 10c per week
Daily and Sunday, delivered, 15c per week
Daily and Sunday, delivered, 1 month, 85c

Postage.
Entered as the Louisville Post-office as second-class matter.
10, 12 and 14 pages, .1 cent
16, 18, 20, 22 and 24 pages, .2 cents
26, 28 and 30 pages, .3 cents
32, 34 and 36 pages, .4 cents
38, 40 and 42 pages, .5 cents
44, 46 and 48 pages, .6 cents
50, 52 and 54 pages, .7 cents
56, 58 and 60 pages, .8 cents
62, 64 and 66 pages, .9 cents
68, 70 and 72 pages, 1.00 cent

Communications.
All communications should be addressed to the Courier-Journal and not to individuals.
If writers who submit MSS. for publication wish to have their names retained they must in all cases send stamps. The editors are glad to examine MSS. but return postage must be included.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1909

"Business."

Tuesday Evening, Oct. 26.—After a firm opening and strength during the first hour
the New York stock market reacted and trended downward the remainder of the session, running off rather sharply in the final hour, and closing at the bottom,
which showed some material net declines.
Uncertainty regarding the money outlook
was given as the chief depressing influence.
Steel common stock 2 1/2, Union Pacific 1 1/2, Southern Pacific 3/4, Reading 1/2 and Great Northern 1/2.

Money on call was firm at 4 to 4 1/2 per cent, ruling at 4 1/2. Time loans were also firm at 5 per cent, for all dates. Sterling exchange was weak.

The Chicago wheat market was weak during the morning, due to declines for cash wheat in most markets, but rallied in the afternoon on short covering, final prices being unchanged to 1/4c to 1/2c higher.

Corn was a shade to 1/4c lower, oats were unchanged to 1/4c lower and provisions were easy.

Cotton again touched new high marks.
Opening prices were 6 to 13 points higher in sympathy with Liverpool, and the market closed strong, closing 2 to 10 points higher than first prices.

The Chicago cattle, sheep and hog markets were steady.

More Fulmination From Peary.

Mr. Peary, in his overweening desire to "hog" all the honors of the North Pole discovery, is striking about as recklessly as a blind man in dogdays.
There was nothing in Rasmussen's statement to justify any denials from Peary. The Danish explorer merely expressed the opinion that Cook reached the pole, and gave his reasons for so believing. That was enough, however, to arouse the commander's wrath and to bring out an uncalled for fulmination of denial.

Another example of Peary's selfishness is supplied in the telegram he sent to Mat Henson, his negro companion in his Arctic journey, forbidding Henson to use the picture "taken at the pole by Henson and Peary." Henson used the picture in his first lecture in New York, regardless of Peary's order of prohibition, and says he will continue to use it. "I suppose Mr. Peary wanted to have it all to himself," Henson is quoted as saying, "but it is my picture and I do not see why I should not use it."

Mat Henson has incurred the wrath of Peary because of his disposition to obtain a slice of the honors and emol-ments of naming the stars and stripes to the pole and the firm of "Henson & Peary" will not continue in existence unless Mat will consent to be a very silent partner. This seems ungrateful on the part of the commander, especially as Mat had manifested greater disposition to assist in naming Cook. Nevertheless, it is characteristic of Peary's conduct from the beginning. A great light evidently is dawning on Mat Henson as indicated by his assertion, "I suppose Mr. Peary wanted to have it all to himself." Mat is gradually waking up to the fact that the commander will tolerate no division of honors and will not stand for any
"me and Peary" business. In his innocence of soul and in his desire to be loyal Mat has been a little slow in finding out what the rest of the world
found out some time ago.

The Intelligent Policeman.

Visitors in Anniston, Ala., will do well to be careful in their choice of words should they have occasion to address a policeman. An eminent Presbyterian minister called a policeman an "encyclopedia" the other day, and promptly was arrested and locked in a cell.

As the incident is related in an Anniston dispatch, Dr. J. W. Stagg, a college president and a leading minister of the South, was standing at a street corner waiting for a car. Patrolman Sheppard passed by, and Dr. Stagg asked him when the car was due. Sheppard answered that he did not know,
and the minister jocularly remarked:
"I thought all policemen were walking encyclopedias of information." Sheppard thought the preacher had insulted him, and placed him under arrest on a charge of "drunk and disorderly." Dr.
Stagg took his arrest good humoredly,
but the citizens of Anniston were moved to wrath. They held an indignation meeting and demanded the dismissal of Sheppard and the prison warden.
The Mayor suspended both officials and ordered the "case" against Dr. Stagg expunged from the record.

The Incident Illustrates the Order of Intelligence of some of the so-called guardians of the peace in American cities. Of course, the officer in this case did not know when the car was due. It is manifest from his subsequent conduct that his knowledge is so limited as to make it exceedingly doubtful if his intellect is equal to the simple process of pounding sand. He may know enough to go in out of the rain or to eat when hungry, but anything requiring a greater degree of mentality is beyond his scope of accomplishment.

It is right and proper that a policeman should be a man of physical strength, but it is unquestionably true that he should have some other qualifications beyond mere brute force. A man who is utterly without education is very poorly equipped for police service, though he be of elephantine proportions and a prodigy of hitting power.

The worthy college professor evidently acted on the assumption that all policemen have brains, whereas a good many of them are lamentably deficient therein. He is fortunate, however, that the patrolman did not more than arrest
him. If he had let drop a few colloquialisms like "paradise" or "octahe-dron," he probably would have been murdered.

The Murder of Prince Ito.

The fatal error of the assassin is his failure to recognize himself as first a fool and then a criminal. Assassination nearly always bears fruit bitter to those who were the enemies or opponents of the victim. Murder does not at all cause such fanatics with pistols, knives or bombs select themselves to represent. The murder of Prince Ito cannot possibly benefit the Koreans.
The Japanese would prove themselves more than human if they should not make the Korean nation suffer more or less as the result of the act of the one blind "patriot" at Harbin. And in Korea the Japanese have been, up to this time, anything but tender, or even temperate in exercising their power over a people whose independence has been destroyed in the interest of Japan's ambitious for the extension of the Empire.

The hatred of Koreans for Japanese,
and of Japanese for Koreans, dates back several hundred years. That hatred, upon the part of the Koreans, has been intensified by the events of the last twenty years, the period during which Japan has steadily encroached upon Korean territory and Korean liberty. The destruction of the political entity of "The Land of the Morning Calm" has been marked by many tragedies of which the world has heard, and by many more, no doubt, in the interior, from whence comes little news of what transpires. The methods employed by the Japanese to secure their first foothold, and ultimately complete control, in Korea, were examples of Oriental diplomacy combining force with fraud. The atrocious murder of the Queen of Korea after the war with China had established the power of Japan in the Hermit Kingdom, was an act of savagery unparalleled in the annals of any civilized nation. It was deliberately planned and deliberately executed as a political movement looking to the advancement of Japanese interests in Korea. It was done under a written contract between the Japanese minister and a villainous Korean politician, formerly Regent, but more recently an exile. It was indorsed by the decision of a Japanese court which said, hypocritically, that the murder "was felt by the accused to be an effective remedy to secure the independence of the Kingdom and at the same time to maintain the prestige of this empire in that country."

The murder of the Queen of Korea
by the representatives of the Japanese Government, and as it is believed in many quarters, under orders of the Tokio Government, was certainly as great a crime upon the part of a government as the assassination of Prince Ito by a Korean was upon the part of an individual. It constituted one of the causes which have combined to increase the bitterness of Koreans toward Japan.

In a series of acts of aggression by the Japanese after the war, between Japan and Russia, Prince Ito, then Marquis Ito, figured prominently as the destroyer of the independence of the Kingdom, acting under orders from the Mikado. It will be recalled by those who were in touch with affairs in the Far East before Russia and Japan engaged upon war, that Japan and Russia had agreed to protect the independence of Korea. After the British-Japan alliance was formed Japan demanded of Russia an agreement acknowledging the superior position of the Japanese Empire in Korea. When this precipitated war, which Japan declared upon the ground that Russia threatened to absorb Manchuria, and threatened Korean independence, the Emperor of Korea declared his country neutral and Japan guaranteed the independence of the country and the repose of the royal family, through Marquis Ito, who went to Seoul
as the personal representative of the Mikado.

When Japan decided, after the Russian war, to remove the Emperor from the Korean throne and take over the country under its own management, Marquis Ito again acted for the Mikado, Hows the Korean Cabinet Ministers were bullied into signing away the independence of their country, the Emperor having retired from the conference, declining to affix his seal to the document, despite a fear of assassination upon his vivid recollection of the murder of his Queen, and heightened by the presence of armed Japanese Ito acted for the Mikado in this matter. Marquis Ito arranged the succession of the present puppet Emperor of Korea to the throne when the old Emperor was removed, and the agreement
by which the last vestige of authority was removed from the farcical Korean Government.

As soon as the Emperor was deposed the Japanese Residency issued an instulting proclamation disbanding the Korean army. The major of a smart battalion, after reading the order to his troops, retired to his quarters and fell upon his sword, protesting, after the Korean method, against the extinction of his country's liberty. The insurrection that followed the disbanding of the army, and that has dragged along since that time, has been marked by numerous evidences of the implacable hatred of the Koreans for the Japanese. Only a few months ago there was reported the fact that Japanese troops found sixteen insurgents and demanded their surrender. Although but eight were armed, the entire number preferred to be shot rather than to surrender, and were, accordingly, shot. It is reported now and again that sporadic manifestations of the insurgent spirit show that the fire are still smoldering, and it is necessary for Japan to keep a considerable military force in Korea to maintain order.

But despite the ill feeling between the two nations, and despite Prince Ito's connection with the events that preceded the destruction of the liberty of the Hermit Kingdom, Ito, as Resident General, was unquestionably popular with the more intelligent native element. It was said that his pacific methods; his efforts to reduce friction
by preventing the Japanese from abus-ing their power and imposing upon Koreans, earned for him the enmity of what is usually called the military party. His withdrawal from the position of Resident General at Seoul, to become a Privy Councillor at Tokio, was regarded by the majority of the Koreans as a calamity. It was recognized that Japan's absorption of Korea was inevitable, and that of all Japanese statesmen he was best qualified, by temperament and intention, to do the best that might be done for the Koreans under the new regime. It was a high tribute to Prince Ito that Koreans of the better class were unanimously in praising his ordering of affairs
during his term of office, and unanimously in regretting his withdrawal. The crime was the greatest political blunder that could have been committed. That it will not tend to increase the popularity of the Koreans among foreigners is a minor consideration, because the world has shown little interest in that country's people or affairs. The greater misfortune that will accrue to the 8,000,000 Koreans who must continue under Japanese rule will be that the effect of the crime must, inevitably, be to increase friction between natives and Japanese resident in Korea and representing their Government there in civil or military capacity.

The assassination was an act of folly equal to the murder of Abraham Lincoln. It served no purpose, and no well-balanced mind could have conceived the idea that it would do so.

Prince Ito's death will be deeply regretted in all civilized countries. Overshadowing the Mikado, whose chief adviser he had been, and dominant in the affairs of the nation, which had grown to greatness under his guidance, he will hold a permanent place in history as the leading statesman of his time in the Orient, and perhaps as the peer of Bismarck, Moltke, and other heroic figures in the Occident.

To Japan, in the hour of her sorrow,
will go out the sympathy of the world.
No matter what the attitude of the individual toward the policies of Japan in Korea, no one can fail to pay to the greatest of her sons the tribute of sincere admiration.

De Angelis On Comic Opera.

Jefferson de Angelis, in an article for one of the magazines, discourses upon the passing of comic opera and the growth of the popularity of musical comedy. Mr. de Angelis has this to say:
"Every year marks a more strenuous struggle for an existence in the business world, and a consequent increase in business worries and troubles. This means that the business man has plenty of troubles at times, which troubles are shared by his family; therefore, when the toll of the day is over, and they seek relaxation from the game of life, they do not want to think; they want to be amused, entertained.

And what will aid them to forget their troubles more than an evening of the combined pleasures of catchy songs, witty dialogue and comic situations, and pretty girls, clothed in bewitching creations of the costumers' art, and where there is no serious plot to bother about?"

Mental facility as a result of overtaxing endeavor does not explain the popularity of musical comedy in which,
as is often the case, the circus clown type of comedian, transferred from the burlesque theater to a higher-paid sphere of activity, is sometimes the leading comedian, his methods being those of his prototype of the "big tent."

The Gilbert and Sullivan operas do not enforce upon the audience any especially trying mental processes. The repertory of the old Bostonians in the days when Henry Clay Barnabee and Thomas Carle, William McDonald and Jessie Bartlett Davis, were at the height of their popularity, did not include operas that drew heavily upon the already partly exhausted mental energies of the audience. The operas were light, and the lighter grand opera, sung in English, and with a synopsis of the libretto furnished gratis with the programme.

The explanation of the popularity of slap-stick musical comedy is that the "tired business man" is tolerant of nearly anything that comes under the heading of comedy, and that he, and his women folk, are tolerant of a good deal that depends upon the risqué rather than upon real brightness, and upon audacity of costuming rather than of art of any kind, for its success. But notwithstanding the tolerance of the theater-going public, something better than the run-of-the-mill musical comedy with the clown in the leading role, usually proves immensely popular and disproves

the managerial theory that the public demands the worst that the market affords. The popularity of "The Merry Widow," which has in it more elements of comic opera than of musical comedy of the common type, serves as an illustration.

It does not follow because revivals of once popular comic operas are not successful, that the public taste has sunk to the level of the most stupid and noisiest of the musical comedies. If a revival of Pinafore or The Pirates of Penzance does not meet with large financial rewards, it is pertinent to inquire, whether a revival of "Piff Paff Pout," or "The Top of the World," in 1920 would draw large crowds to the box-office? Recent experience has shown that "Wang," revived, is not greatly popular. It is not demonstrable that this is because the music for "Wang" was somewhat better than that of a number of popular musical comedies of more recent vintage. "A Country Girl," an English musical comedy which approached the comic operas of the Gilbert and Sullivan school, proved immensely popular on both sides of the Atlantic four or five years ago. The inference is that, should this period produce meritorious comic operas it would be well received despite the fact that the hits of thirty years ago are not his as revivals. Following the line of argument upon which Mr. de Angelis proceeds, it would be fair to assume that within a decade a still further extenuation of public taste, due to still further debasement of the mind of "the tired business" man, will displace the musical comedy of to-day in favor of the style of burlesque that finds continuous favor with a certain element. Such an evolution would rob Mr. de Angelis, and other high-salaried performers, of their occupation, or reduce them to the acceptance of the compensation received by burlesque stars who entertain a portion of the tired business public at 50 cents a head while Mr. de Angelis and others in his profession make the not-quite-so-tired public at $1.50 or $2 a head.

A new comic opera of Gilbert and Sullivan grade might not attract all of those who delight in "The Top of the World." It might be borne in mind that "The Top of the World" fails to attract a great many persons who would gladly purchase tickets to hear a comic opera of quality.

The Government statement of whisky withdrawals shows that in 1899 there were $2,694,233 gallons withdrawn, and that the number of gallons so far in 1909 is 124,901,408. And when one speculates upon how much of this amount of liquor has been expanded and exposed for sale in the blind tides of the prohibition States, it does look as if prohibition is about to engulf the United States in intoxication.

A person whose name is Theodor
Van Wick puts Mr. Barnard's margin in the New York mayoralty race at 40,000. Not knowing the contents of Mr. Barnard's barrel as expressed in cubic feet of cash it is impossible to form any opinion of probable results
this far from New York.

"The Kissing Girl" is popular on the Chicago stage, according to the Chicago News. A theatrical attraction with a title so necromantic is bound to be popular. The chaplain and the sanitarian are alike powerless to overthrow the greatest institution of the Western world.

London declines to interest itself in the "great American play," the "Great Divide." The British should be congratulated upon their taste. Incidentally someone should inform them that the Great Divide is considered a great deal of slush by a great many Americans.

A burglar entering the home of a Boston spinster was so badly frightened by the sudden appearance of the lady bearing a lamp that he jumped out of a window. The dreadnought type of face is valuable in certain circumstances, but it enforces spinstery.

A careful reading of the arguments on both sides shows that the Mayor of New York, no matter which of the candidates may receive the certificate of election, will be a man with whom the late Capt. Kidd would have declined to associate.

The President as an advocate of deepening the interior waterways strikes us more favorably than the President as an advocate of gouging out the pockets of the taxpayers to provide a graft for the ship subsidy grabbers.

If the Joe Cannon style of Republicanism survives the next session of Congress let the Log Cabin be painted out and the dark lantern and saved-out pistol of the yeggman substituted for the party emblem.

Mr. Barnard, of New York, says his fair city does not want "a geyser like Gaynor" for Mayor, and Mr. Hearst holds that the only man fit to be Mayor is a geyser named Willie.

As Philander C. Knox has just purchased a home at Valley Forge it looks
as if the State Department may really
intend to adopt the militant attitude
outlined by Mr. Crane.

The New York Tribune with nar-
rower columns looks like a wide-awake
and up-to-date newspaper instead of a dignified, ancient and honorable institution.

Among the prominent Americans
who have been touted for high office,
Judge Lorton, of Tennessee, holds the record for the highest number of toutings.

Upon reading the New York papers
one is filled with wonderment that Sir
Sing is not filled with New York politicians.

TO ASSASSINATE

Cannon To Demand Investigation, Says Rumor.

PROOF OF CHARGES MAY BE ASKED OF PARSONS.

JUDGE LORTON'S APPOINTMENT
WILL BE OPPOSED.

EASTERNERS WANT THE PLACE

Washington, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—
Some of Speaker Cannon's close friends say when Congress meets he is going to demand an investigation of Representative Parsons' charges that the House machine and the Tammany Congressmen entered into a deal to save the House rules. Others in some doubt about it. The Speaker is already in hot water that is approaching boiling point, and during the coming session he will have his hands full sustaining himself without acting in the aggressive.

The Speaker, however, would have three famous precedents to guide him.
It was charged that Henry Clay, while Speaker, made a bargain to support
John Quincy Adams for the presidency, Clay's reward to be the appointment as Secretary of State. Clay surrendered the chair took the floor and demanded an investigation. Seven members were appointed "by ballot." The case was afterward dropped.

Speaker Randall in 1879 was charged with using his influence for a paper mill in which he was interested. He demanded an investigation and the House passed a resolution of censure. The Speaker in 1899 was charged with being connected with the Credit Mobilier scandal.

The case fast through, as the two Congressmen who made the allegations would have to have private citizens appointed of Congressmen when the House investigated. The House, however, passed a resolution of censure
aimed at them.

It would make things mighty interesting in the House if a bona fide non-partisan committee should ever start
any kind of an investigation in the House.

No Further Cuts.

That Congress will not cut the appropriations for the next fiscal year before the end of the session is the opinion of the Sixty-first Congress is the conviction of many members of Congress and officials who have been studying the appropriation bills. The House, however, passed a resolution of censure
aimed at them.

It would make things mighty interesting in the House if a bona fide non-
partisan committee should ever start
any kind of an investigation in the House.

Lorton Strongly Opposed.

President Taft will have to go through a good deal of pulling and hauling before he can name Judge Lorton to the Supreme Court. The death of Justice Peckham, the death of Justice McKenna, and the death of Justice Brandeis, have left the Eastern territory from Massachusetts to Alabama. Not only this,
but the corporation influences will use an informed and powerful lobby of any one of several candidates who are now being prominently mentioned for the position. The age of Judge Lorton is a serious consideration. Of the sixty-two men who have been appointed since the organization, only six have been above sixty. The average age of the men named for the bench is 51 1/2 years.

Kentucky Postmasters.

Kentucky postmasters have been appointed as follows: Cox, Carter county; Cora, Cox, Carter county; H. Frazier, resigned; Higdon, Grayson county; Davis, Hickman, vice C. D. Meredith, resigned; Jericho, Henry county; Milton
P. Ferguson, vice M. Gordon, resigned.

Ballinger Returns To Washington.

After an absence of almost two months in the West, spent in investigating the case of the Pullman strike,
Mr. Ballinger returned to Washington
last night. Mr. Ballinger's new play,
"The House of the Rising Sun," a sequel to "The House of the Rising Sun," will be produced at the Masonic Temple.

The play has a beautiful country house at Dayton, Ohio, a short distance from Washington.

FUNERAL OF E. L. GOODWIN
THIS AFTERNOON.

The funeral of Edward Livingston Goodwin, prominent business man and well-known citizen and churchman, who died Monday morning after a long illness, will be conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 1000 Lexington street, by the Rev. Dr.
W. W. Landrum, pastor of the Broadway Baptist church, of which Mr.
Goodwin was a member. The burial will be in the cemetery at the residence.
According to the wish of Mr. Goodwin,
the funeral services will be of the simplest nature, both at the home and at the grave. The burial will be in Cave Hill cemetery. The honorary pallbearers will be: C. H. Smith, J. Humphrey, G. W. Norton,
Frank Miller, W. W. Storts, Stanford Strother, F. J. Goodridge, Andrew E. Brown, W. H. Newman, J. H.
Weiler, E. E. Snyder, C. Edwin Greene,
Dr. J. B. Marvin, C. W. Greene, Peyton N. Claiborne and B. Prosser Smith.

The active pallbearers will be as follows: M. Blagomere, E. Boyd Martin, J. Lithgow Smith, J. H. Rhodes,
Robert J. Kinkead, C. H. Jenkins,
W. Combs, Samuel E. Chambers, C.
W. Combs, Samuel E. Chambers, C.
W. Combs, Samuel E. Chambers, C.

As Philander C. Knox has just purchased a home at Valley Forge it looks
as if the State Department may really
intend to adopt the militant attitude
outlined by Mr. Crane.

The New York Tribune with nar-
rower columns looks like a wide-awake
and up-to-date newspaper instead of a dignified, ancient and honorable institution.

Among the prominent Americans
who have been touted for high office,
Judge Lorton, of Tennessee, holds the record for the highest number of tout-
ings.

Upon reading the New York papers
one is filled with wonderment that Sir
Sing is not filled with New York politicians.

Points About People.

Given Yesterday Afternoon By Miss Emily Houston Brown In Honor of Misses Margaret Mc-Chord and Nettie Roberts.

Miss Aph Phelps will be hostess to-day at a beautifully appointed luncheon given at the Country Club in honor of her niece, Miss Beatrice Stevens, of Lexington, Mass., and Miss Martha Cecil.

The centerpiece will be a flat design of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Laban Phelps, Mrs. David Castle-man and Mrs. Stuart R. Cecil will be the chaperones, and the other guests will be limited to debutantes.

Covers will be laid for the following:

MESDAMES.
Laban Phelps, Stuart Cecil,
David Ouelman, Maud Blane, Beatrice Stevens, Catherine Lawton, Martha Cecil, Mary Frazer, Martha Sanford, of Austine Barton,
New Castle, Emily Bland, Cornelia Guthrie, Elizabeth Bickup,
Mary Craig Hobbs, Christine Bickup, Isabel Hobbs, Florence Bickup, Margaret McChord, Cecil Houston,
Louise Robinson, Florence Bickup, Helen Hickman, Meta Speed, of New York, and Mrs. J. W. Clark.

Mrs. Charles B. Norton entertained informally at bridge yesterday afternoon at her home on Second street in honor of her guest, Mrs. Helen Williamson, of Evansville, Ind.

Mrs. Norton's guests included the following:

MESDAMES.
Ellen Williamson, J. W. O'Bannon, Loren B. Williams, L. H. Williams,
Edward A. Williams, Harry Warman, Thomas Bohannon.

Mrs. Alfred H. Williams, of Nashville, Tenn., will arrive next Monday to visit
Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Bethel will entertain at a luncheon on November 3 in honor of her guest.

On November 5 Mrs. J. W. Clark will entertain at bridge for Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Henry Lawton will entertain at a country dance at her home on Friday, November 12, in honor of her daughter, Miss Beatrice Stevens, of Lexington, Mass.

The informal country idea will be carried out in every way. The girls will wear short frocks and the men will go in their business suits.

Mrs. W. R. Blie and son, Weller Blie, have gone to Rome, Ga., where they were called last week by the sudden death of Mr. Blie's brother-in-law, Mr. Arthur Sullivan.

Miss Martha Sanford, of New Castle,
is the guest of her sister and brother, Mr.
and Mrs. David Castleman.

Miss Antoinette Hays was the hostess yesterday morning of a "box party," given in honor of her daughter, Miss Beatrice Stevens, of Lexington, Mass.

Miss Hays' guests included the following:

MESDAMES.
Samuel McDonald, Alexander Troy, of Alexander, Farnley, Birmingham;
H. H. Caldwell, of Caldwell, N. C.; Edwin Hays, William Wilson,
William Castle.

MESDAMES.
Virginia Semple, Gay Watts, of Br-Belle Norra, Birmingham, Ala.; Emily Bullitt, Percy Hays.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Percy Brown will be the hosts of a country dance on Friday, November 12, in honor of their daughter, Miss Amelia Brown.

The girls will wear short frocks and the men will wear short frocks and the men will wear short frocks and the men will wear
short frocks and the men will wear short
frocks and the men will wear short frocks
and the men will wear short frocks and
the men will wear short frocks and the
men will wear short frocks and the men
will wear short frocks and the men will
wear short frocks and the men will wear
short frocks and the men will wear short
frocks and the men will wear short frocks
and the men will wear short frocks and
the men will wear short frocks and the
men will wear short frocks and the men
will wear short frocks and the men will
wear short frocks and the men will wear
short frocks and the men will wear short
frocks and the men will wear short frocks
and the men will wear short frocks and
the men will wear short frocks and the
men will wear short frocks and the men
will wear short frocks and the men will
wear short frocks and the men will wear
short frocks and the men will wear short
frocks and the men will wear short frocks
and the men will wear short frocks and
the men will wear short frocks and the
men will wear short frocks and the men
will wear short frocks and the men will
wear short frocks and the men will wear
short frocks and the men will wear short
frocks and the men will wear short frocks
and the men will wear short frocks and
the men will wear short frocks and the
men will wear short frocks and the men
will wear short frocks and the men will
wear short frocks and the men will wear
short frocks and the men will wear short
frocks and the men will wear short frocks
and the men will wear short frocks and
the men will wear short frocks and the
men will wear short frocks and the men
will wear short frocks and the men will
wear short frocks and the men will wear
short frocks and the men will wear short
frocks and the men will wear short frocks
and the men will wear short frocks and
the men will wear short frocks and the
men will wear short frocks and the men
will wear short frocks and the men will
wear short frocks and the men will wear
short frocks and the men will wear short
frocks and the men will wear short frocks
and the men will wear short frocks and
the men will wear short frocks and the
men will wear short frocks and the men
will wear short frocks and the men will
wear short frocks and the men will wear
short frocks and the men will wear short
frocks and the men will wear short frocks
and the men will wear short frocks and
the men will wear short frocks and the
men will wear short frocks and the men
will wear short frocks and the men will
wear short frocks and the men will wear
short frocks and the men will wear short
frocks and the men will wear short frocks
and the men will wear short frocks and
the men will wear short fro

GO TO SPORT AT LATONIA TRACK

Big Crowd of Regulars Breaks Even With the Bookmakers.

OLD DARGIN WINS AGAIN.

Defeats Tony Faust in Fifth—Boca Grande Shows High Class in Feature Race.

CAPT. GLORE TAKES OFFENR.

SELECTIONS FOR TO-DAY.

First Race—Loust Bud, Lady Welles, Tortoise.
Second Race—All Red, Bedwell entry, Al Muller.
Third Race—Jack Binns, Carondelet, Southern Gold.
Fourth Race—Silver Stocking, Kokomo, Crawford.
Fifth Race—Joe Moser, Youthful, Boer-rian.
Sixth Race—Dr. Waldo Briggs, Cerem-ano, Aunt Sturtevant.
Seventh Race—Bet-Joe Moser.

Latonia, Ky., Oct. 26.—(Special)—Another banner day's sport was witnessed at the famous Midland course this afternoon, and with favorites equally successful with outsiders in catching the judge's eye first, the exceptionally good crowd of "regulars" broke about even with the bookies. Three of the events went to heavily-supported first choices, while Capt. Gloré at 7 to 1, Grenade at 4 to 1, and Flirting, backed from 2 to 1 to a class of 5 to 1, were the others to win themselves a treat.

Boca Grande, credited with being the best 2-year-old in the Middle West, made his initial appearance of the meeting in the third race, winning at a common gallop from some of the best youngsters quartered here. Mamie Algol's victory in the long-distance event was also one of the features of the day, her victory being a four straight, was the other favorite to cope.

The start was delayed some time in the fifth, old Hueston, which had been barred from most of the tracks for several seasons, running off while en route to the post, and circling the course three times before the start could gain control of his mount. By order of the judges this erratic old performer was not permitted to start, which was immaterial as far as the race itself was concerned, little or no money being wagered on him.

J. U. Strode, manager of the Tampa track, arrived to-day and is busy interesting himself in the racing. He is a former owner of the Tampa track, and is now in the business of buying and selling horses. He is a former owner of the Tampa track, and is now in the business of buying and selling horses. He is a former owner of the Tampa track, and is now in the business of buying and selling horses.

Outsider Wins Opener.

Capt. Gloré, an outsider in the betting, upset the beans in the day's opener, while the heavily-backed favorite, Hueston, failed to run up to expectations, being away back in the rut. The winner was easily seen, assumed command when Carondelet, who had been in the lead, broke down in the stretch. The latter was the only one of the four who was able to complete the race, and he was the only one who was able to complete the race.

Boca Grande Shows Class.

Boca Grande, W. H. Flier's crack 2-year-old, had little trouble taking the lead in the second race, and he was the only one who was able to complete the race. He was the only one who was able to complete the race, and he was the only one who was able to complete the race.

Old Grenade Annexes Purse.

Grenade, backed by those close to the Hueston stable, was returned the winner in the fifth. Flirting was the one who was able to complete the race, and he was the only one who was able to complete the race.

Hueston Causes Delay.

There was a rather unusual delay at the post in the fifth race, the erratic old performer, Hueston, taking it into his head to run around the track three times before he could get to the post. He was the only one who was able to complete the race, and he was the only one who was able to complete the race.

Flirting Medium of Coup.

A real, genuine killing was successfully executed in the sixth race, the winner, Flirting, being the only one who was able to complete the race. He was the only one who was able to complete the race, and he was the only one who was able to complete the race.

LATONIA ENTRIES.

FIRST RACE—Five furlongs; purse, $100. 1. Keaden, 100 to 1. 2. Sarsaparilla, 100 to 1. 3. Hueston, 100 to 1. 4. Tortoise, 100 to 1. 5. Lady Welles, 100 to 1. 6. Loust Bud, 100 to 1. 7. All Red, 100 to 1. 8. Bedwell entry, 100 to 1. 9. Al Muller, 100 to 1. 10. Jack Binns, 100 to 1. 11. Carondelet, 100 to 1. 12. Southern Gold, 100 to 1. 13. Silver Stocking, 100 to 1. 14. Kokomo, 100 to 1. 15. Crawford, 100 to 1. 16. Joe Moser, 100 to 1. 17. Youthful, 100 to 1. 18. Boer-rian, 100 to 1. 19. Dr. Waldo Briggs, 100 to 1. 20. Cerem-ano, 100 to 1. 21. Aunt Sturtevant, 100 to 1. 22. Bet-Joe Moser, 100 to 1.

LATONIA FORM CHART.

Latonia, Ky., Oct. 26.—Fourteenth day of Latonia Jockey Club's fall meeting. Scheduled for twenty-four days. Weather clear; track heavy.

Presiding Judge, Chas. F. Price; Associate Judge and Handicapper, John Dillon; Starter, Jake Holman.

157—FIRST RACE—Five and one-half furlongs; purse $100; for maidens 2-year-olds. Start good. Weather clear. Track heavy. Value to winner, $25.50. Fractional time, 1:14.4, 1:21.4, 1:28.4, 1:35.4, 1:42.4, 1:49.4, 1:56.4, 2:03.4, 2:10.4, 2:17.4, 2:24.4, 2:31.4, 2:38.4, 2:45.4, 2:52.4, 2:59.4, 3:06.4, 3:13.4, 3:20.4, 3:27.4, 3:34.4, 3:41.4, 3:48.4, 3:55.4, 4:02.4, 4:09.4, 4:16.4, 4:23.4, 4:30.4, 4:37.4, 4:44.4, 4:51.4, 4:58.4, 5:05.4, 5:12.4, 5:19.4, 5:26.4, 5:33.4, 5:40.4, 5:47.4, 5:54.4, 6:01.4, 6:08.4, 6:15.4, 6:22.4, 6:29.4, 6:36.4, 6:43.4, 6:50.4, 6:57.4, 7:04.4, 7:11.4, 7:18.4, 7:25.4, 7:32.4, 7:39.4, 7:46.4, 7:53.4, 8:00.4, 8:07.4, 8:14.4, 8:21.4, 8:28.4, 8:35.4, 8:42.4, 8:49.4, 8:56.4, 9:03.4, 9:10.4, 9:17.4, 9:24.4, 9:31.4, 9:38.4, 9:45.4, 9:52.4, 9:59.4, 10:06.4, 10:13.4, 10:20.4, 10:27.4, 10:34.4, 10:41.4, 10:48.4, 10:55.4, 11:02.4, 11:09.4, 11:16.4, 11:23.4, 11:30.4, 11:37.4, 11:44.4, 11:51.4, 11:58.4, 12:05.4, 12:12.4, 12:19.4, 12:26.4, 12:33.4, 12:40.4, 12:47.4, 12:54.4, 13:01.4, 13:08.4, 13:15.4, 13:22.4, 13:29.4, 13:36.4, 13:43.4, 13:50.4, 13:57.4, 14:04.4, 14:11.4, 14:18.4, 14:25.4, 14:32.4, 14:39.4, 14:46.4, 14:53.4, 15:00.4, 15:07.4, 15:14.4, 15:21.4, 15:28.4, 15:35.4, 15:42.4, 15:49.4, 15:56.4, 16:03.4, 16:10.4, 16:17.4, 16:24.4, 16:31.4, 16:38.4, 16:45.4, 16:52.4, 16:59.4, 17:06.4, 17:13.4, 17:20.4, 17:27.4, 17:34.4, 17:41.4, 17:48.4, 17:55.4, 18:02.4, 18:09.4, 18:16.4, 18:23.4, 18:30.4, 18:37.4, 18:44.4, 18:51.4, 18:58.4, 19:05.4, 19:12.4, 19:19.4, 19:26.4, 19:33.4, 19:40.4, 19:47.4, 19:54.4, 20:01.4, 20:08.4, 20:15.4, 20:22.4, 20:29.4, 20:36.4, 20:43.4, 20:50.4, 20:57.4, 21:04.4, 21:11.4, 21:18.4, 21:25.4, 21:32.4, 21:39.4, 21:46.4, 21:53.4, 22:00.4, 22:07.4, 22:14.4, 22:21.4, 22:28.4, 22:35.4, 22:42.4, 22:49.4, 22:56.4, 23:03.4, 23:10.4, 23:17.4, 23:24.4, 23:31.4, 23:38.4, 23:45.4, 23:52.4, 23:59.4, 24:06.4, 24:13.4, 24:20.4, 24:27.4, 24:34.4, 24:41.4, 24:48.4, 24:55.4, 25:02.4, 25:09.4, 25:16.4, 25:23.4, 25:30.4, 25:37.4, 25:44.4, 25:51.4, 25:58.4, 26:05.4, 26:12.4, 26:19.4, 26:26.4, 26:33.4, 26:40.4, 26:47.4, 26:54.4, 27:01.4, 27:08.4, 27:15.4, 27:22.4, 27:29.4, 27:36.4, 27:43.4, 27:50.4, 27:57.4, 28:04.4, 28:11.4, 28:18.4, 28:25.4, 28:32.4, 28:39.4, 28:46.4, 28:53.4, 29:00.4, 29:07.4, 29:14.4, 29:21.4, 29:28.4, 29:35.4, 29:42.4, 29:49.4, 29:56.4, 30:03.4, 30:10.4, 30:17.4, 30:24.4, 30:31.4, 30:38.4, 30:45.4, 30:52.4, 30:59.4, 31:06.4, 31:13.4, 31:20.4, 31:27.4, 31:34.4, 31:41.4, 31:48.4, 31:55.4, 32:02.4, 32:09.4, 32:16.4, 32:23.4, 32:30.4, 32:37.4, 32:44.4, 32:51.4, 32:58.4, 33:05.4, 33:12.4, 33:19.4, 33:26.4, 33:33.4, 33:40.4, 33:47.4, 33:54.4, 34:01.4, 34:08.4, 34:15.4, 34:22.4, 34:29.4, 34:36.4, 34:43.4, 34:50.4, 34:57.4, 35:04.4, 35:11.4, 35:18.4, 35:25.4, 35:32.4, 35:39.4, 35:46.4, 35:53.4, 36:00.4, 36:07.4, 36:14.4, 36:21.4, 36:28.4, 36:35.4, 36:42.4, 36:49.4, 36:56.4, 37:03.4, 37:10.4, 37:17.4, 37:24.4, 37:31.4, 37:38.4, 37:45.4, 37:52.4, 37:59.4, 38:06.4, 38:13.4, 38:20.4, 38:27.4, 38:34.4, 38:41.4, 38:48.4, 38:55.4, 39:02.4, 39:09.4, 39:16.4, 39:23.4, 39:30.4, 39:37.4, 39:44.4, 39:51.4, 39:58.4, 40:05.4, 40:12.4, 40:19.4, 40:26.4, 40:33.4, 40:40.4, 40:47.4, 40:54.4, 41:01.4, 41:08.4, 41:15.4, 41:22.4, 41:29.4, 41:36.4, 41:43.4, 41:50.4, 41:57.4, 42:04.4, 42:11.4, 42:18.4, 42:25.4, 42:32.4, 42:39.4, 42:46.4, 42:53.4, 43:00.4, 43:07.4, 43:14.4, 43:21.4, 43:28.4, 43:35.4, 43:42.4, 43:49.4, 43:56.4, 44:03.4, 44:10.4, 44:17.4, 44:24.4, 44:31.4, 44:38.4, 44:45.4, 44:52.4, 44:59.4, 45:06.4, 45:13.4, 45:20.4, 45:27.4, 45:34.4, 45:41.4, 45:48.4, 45:55.4, 46:02.4, 46:09.4, 46:16.4, 46:23.4, 46:30.4, 46:37.4, 46:44.4, 46:51.4, 46:58.4, 47:05.4, 47:12.4, 47:19.4, 47:26.4, 47:33.4, 47:40.4, 47:47.4, 47:54.4, 48:01.4, 48:08.4, 48:15.4, 48:22.4, 48:29.4, 48:36.4, 48:43.4, 48:50.4, 48:57.4, 49:04.4, 49:11.4, 49:18.4, 49:25.4, 49:32.4, 49:39.4, 49:46.4, 49:53.4, 50:00.4, 50:07.4, 50:14.4, 50:21.4, 50:28.4, 50:35.4, 50:42.4, 50:49.4, 50:56.4, 51:03.4, 51:10.4, 51:17.4, 51:24.4, 51:31.4, 51:38.4, 51:45.4, 51:52.4, 51:59.4, 52:06.4, 52:13.4, 52:20.4, 52:27.4, 52:34.4, 52:41.4, 52:48.4, 52:55.4, 53:02.4, 53:09.4, 53:16.4, 53:23.4, 53:30.4, 53:37.4, 53:44.4, 53:51.4, 53:58.4, 54:05.4, 54:12.4, 54:19.4, 54:26.4, 54:33.4, 54:40.4, 54:47.4, 54:54.4, 55:01.4, 55:08.4, 55:15.4, 55:22.4, 55:29.4, 55:36.4, 55:43.4, 55:50.4, 55:57.4, 56:04.4, 56:11.4, 56:18.4, 56:25.4, 56:32.4, 56:39.4, 56:46.4, 56:53.4, 57:00.4, 57:07.4, 57:14.4, 57:21.4, 57:28.4, 57:35.4, 57:42.4, 57:49.4, 57:56.4, 58:03.4, 58:10.4, 58:17.4, 58:24.4, 58:31.4, 58:38.4, 58:45.4, 58:52.4, 58:59.4, 59:06.4, 59:13.4, 59:20.4, 59:27.4, 59:34.4, 59:41.4, 59:48.4, 59:55.4, 60:02.4, 60:09.4, 60:16.4, 60:23.4, 60:30.4, 60:37.4, 60:44.4, 60:51.4, 60:58.4, 61:05.4, 61:12.4, 61:19.4, 61:26.4, 61:33.4, 61:40.4, 61:47.4, 61:54.4, 62:01.4, 62:08.4, 62:15.4, 62:22.4, 62:29.4, 62:36.4, 62:43.4, 62:50.4, 62:57.4, 63:04.4, 63:11.4, 63:18.4, 63:25.4, 63:32.4, 63:39.4, 63:46.4, 63:53.4, 64:00.4, 64:07.4, 64:14.4, 64:21.4, 64:28.4, 64:35.4, 64:42.4, 64:49.4, 64:56.4, 65:03.4, 65:10.4, 65:17.4, 65:24.4, 65:31.4, 65:38.4, 65:45.4, 65:52.4, 65:59.4, 66:06.4, 66:13.4, 66:20.4, 66:27.4, 66:34.4, 66:41.4, 66:48.4, 66:55.4, 67:02.4, 67:09.4, 67:16.4, 67:23.4, 67:30.4, 67:37.4, 67:44.4, 67:51.4, 67:58.4, 68:05.4, 68:12.4, 68:19.4, 68:26.4, 68:33.4, 68:40.4, 68:47.4, 68:54.4, 69:01.4, 69:08.4, 69:15.4, 69:22.4, 69:29.4, 69:36.4, 69:43.4, 69:50.4, 69:57.4, 70:04.4, 70:11.4, 70:18.4, 70:25.4, 70:32.4, 70:39.4, 70:46.4, 70:53.4, 71:00.4, 71:07.4, 71:14.4, 71:21.4, 71:28.4, 71:35.4, 71:42.4, 71:49.4, 71:56.4, 72:03.4, 72:10.4, 72:17.4, 72:24.4, 72:31.4, 72:38.4, 72:45.4, 72:52.4, 72:59.4, 73:06.4, 73:13.4, 73:20.4, 73:27.4, 73:34.4, 73:41.4, 73:48.4, 73:55.4, 74:02.4, 74:09.4, 74:16.4, 74:23.4, 74:30.4, 74:37.4, 74:44.4, 74:51.4, 74:58.4, 75:05.4, 75:12.4, 75:19.4, 75:26.4, 75:33.4, 75:40.4, 75:47.4, 75:54.4, 76:01.4, 76:08.4, 76:15.4, 76:22.4, 76:29.4, 76:36.4, 76:43.4, 76:50.4, 76:57.4, 77:04.4, 77:11.4, 77:18.4, 77:25.4, 77:32.4, 77:39.4, 77:46.4, 77:53.4, 78:00.4, 78:07.4, 78:14.4, 78:21.4, 78:28.4, 78:35.4, 78:42.4, 78:49.4, 78:56.4, 79:03.4, 79:10.4, 79:17.4, 79:24.4, 79:31.4, 79:38.4, 79:45.4, 79:52.4, 80:00.4, 80:07.4, 80:14.4, 80:21.4, 80:28.4, 80:35.4, 80:42.4, 80:49.4, 80:56.4, 81:03.4, 81:10.4, 81:17.4, 81:24.4, 81:31.4, 81:38.4, 81:45.4, 81:52.4, 81:59.4, 82:06.4, 82:13.4, 82:20.4, 82:27.4, 82:34.4, 82:41.4, 82:48.4, 82:55.4, 83:02.4, 83:09.4, 83:16.4, 83:23.4, 83:30.4, 83:37.4, 83:44.4, 83:51.4, 83:58.4, 84:05.4, 84:12.4, 84:19.4, 84:26.4, 84:33.4, 84:40.4, 84:47.4, 84:54.4, 85:01.4, 85:08.4, 85:15.4, 85:22.4, 85:29.4, 85:36.4, 85:43.4, 85:50.4, 85:57.4, 86:04.4, 86:11.4, 86:18.4, 86:25.4, 86:32.4, 86:39.4, 86:46.4, 86:53.4, 87:00.4, 87:07.4, 87:14.4, 87:21.4, 87:28.4, 87:35.4, 87:42.4, 87:49.4, 87:56.4, 88:03.4, 88:10.4, 88:17.4, 88:24.4, 88:31.4, 88:38.4, 88:45.4, 88:52.4, 88:59.4, 89:06.4, 89:13.4, 89:20.4, 89:27.4, 89:34.4, 89:41.4, 89:48.4, 89:55.4, 90:02.4, 90:09.4, 90:16.4, 90:23.4, 90:30.4, 90:37.4, 90:44.4, 90:51.4, 90:58.4, 91:05.4, 91:12.4, 91:19.4, 91:26.4, 91:33.4, 91:40.4, 91:47.4, 91:54.4, 92:01.4, 92:08.4, 92:15.4, 92:22.4, 92:29.4, 92:36.4, 92:43.4, 92:50.4, 92:57.4, 93:04.4, 93:11.4, 93:18.4, 93:25.4, 93:32.4, 93:39.4, 93:46.4, 93:53.4, 94:00.4, 94:07.4, 94:14.4, 94:21.4, 94:28.4, 94:35.4, 94:42.4, 94:49.4, 94:56.4, 95:03.4, 95:10.4, 95:17.4, 95:24.4, 95:31.4, 95:38.4, 95:45.4, 95:52.4, 95:59.4, 96:06.4, 96:13.4, 96:20.4, 96:27.4, 96:34.4, 96:41.4, 96:48.4, 96:55.4, 97:02.4, 97:09.4, 97:16.4, 97:23.4, 97:30.4, 97:37.4, 97:44.4, 97:51.4, 97:58.4, 98:05.4, 98:12.4, 98:19.4, 98:26.4, 98:33.4, 98:40.4, 98:47.4, 98:54.4, 99:01.4, 99:08.4, 99:15.4, 99:22.4, 99:29.4, 99:36.4, 99:43.4, 99:50.4, 100:00.4.

158—SECOND RACE—One and one-eighth miles. Purses $200. For 2-year-olds and upward. Start good. Weather clear. Track heavy. Value to winner, $25.50. Fractional time, 1:14.4, 1:21.4, 1:28.4, 1:35.4, 1:42.4, 1:49.4, 1:56.4, 2:03.4, 2:10.4, 2:17.4, 2:24.4, 2:31.4, 2:38.4, 2:45.4, 2:52.4, 2:59.4, 3:06.4, 3:13.4, 3:20.4, 3:27.4, 3:34.4, 3:41.4, 3:48.4, 3:55.4, 4:02.4, 4:09.4, 4:16.4, 4:23.4, 4:30.4, 4:37.4, 4:44.4, 4:51.4, 4:58.4, 5:05.4, 5:12.4, 5:19.4, 5:26.4, 5:33.4, 5:40.4, 5:47.4, 5:54.4, 6:01.4, 6:08.4, 6:15.4, 6:22.4, 6:29.4, 6:36.4, 6:43.4, 6:50.4, 6:57.4, 7:04.4, 7:11.4, 7:18.4, 7:25.4, 7:32.4, 7:39.4, 7:46.4, 7:53.4, 8:00.4, 8:07.4, 8:14.4, 8:21.4, 8:28.4, 8:35.4, 8:42.4, 8:49.4, 8:56.4, 9:03.4, 9:10.4, 9:17.4, 9:24.4, 9:31.4, 9:38.4, 9:45.4, 9:52.4, 9:59.4, 10:06.4, 10:13.4, 10:20.4, 10:27.4, 10:34.4, 10:41.4, 10:48.4, 10:55.4, 11:02.4, 11:09.4, 11:16.4, 11:23.4, 11:30.4, 11:37.4, 11:44.4, 11:51.4, 11:58.4, 12:05.4, 12:12.4, 12:19.4, 12:26.4, 12:33.4, 12:40.4, 12:47.4, 12:54.4, 13:01.4, 13:08.4, 13:15.4, 13:22.4, 13:29.4, 13:36.4, 13:43.4, 13:50.4, 13:57.4, 14:04.4, 14:11.4, 14:18.4, 14:25.4, 14:32.4, 14:39.4, 14:46.4, 14:53.4, 15:00.4, 15:07.4, 15:14.4, 15:21.4, 15:28.4, 15:35.4, 15:42.4, 15:49.4, 15:56.4, 16:03.4, 16:10.4, 16:17.4, 16:24.4, 16:31.4, 16:38.4, 16:45.4, 16:52.4, 16:59.4, 17:06.4, 17:13.4, 17:20.4, 17:27.4, 17:34.4, 17:41.4, 17:48.4, 17:55.4, 18:02.4, 18:09.4, 18:16.4, 18:23.4, 18:30.4, 18:37.4, 18:44.4, 18:51.4, 18:58.4, 19:05.4, 19:12.4, 19:19.4, 19:26.4, 19:33.4, 19:40.4, 19:47.4, 19:54.4, 19:59.4, 20:06.4, 20:13.4, 20:20.4, 20:27.4, 20:34.4, 20:41.4, 20:48.4, 20:55.4, 21:02.4, 21:09.4, 21:16.4, 21:23.4, 21:30.4, 21:37.4, 21:44.4, 21:51.4, 21:58.4, 22:05.4, 22:12.4, 22:19.4, 22:26.4, 22:33.4, 22:40.4, 22:47.4, 22:54.4, 23:01.4, 23:08.4, 23:15.4, 23:22.4, 23:29.4, 23:36.4, 23:43.4, 23:50.4, 23:57.4, 24:04.4, 24:11.4, 24:18.4, 24:25.4, 24:32.4, 24:39.4, 24:46.4, 24:53.4, 25:00.4, 25:07.4, 25:14.4, 25:21.4, 25:28.4, 25:35.4, 25:42.4, 25:49.4, 25:56.4, 26:03.4, 26:10.4, 26:17.4, 26:24.4, 26:31.4, 26:38.4, 26:45.4, 26:52.4, 26:59.4, 27:06.4, 27:13.4, 27:20.4, 27:27.4, 27:34.4, 27:41.4, 27:48.4, 27:55.4, 28:02.4, 28:09.4, 28:16.4, 28:23.4, 28:30.4, 28:37.4, 28:44.4, 28:51.4, 28:58.4, 29:05.4, 29:12.4, 29:19.4, 29:26.4, 29:33.4, 29:40.4, 29:47.4, 29:54.4, 30:01.4, 30:08.4, 30:15.4, 30:22.4, 30:29.4, 30:36.4, 30:43.4, 30:50.4, 30:57.4, 31:04.4, 31:11.4, 31:18.4, 31:25.4, 3

GOD'S WORK

Accomplished by Humane Society During Past Year.

ORGANIZATION HAMPERED BY LACK OF FUNDS.

PRESIDENT BROWN READS HIS ANNUAL REPORT.

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED.

The work of the Kentucky Humane Society for the past year was read by President George G. Brown, who also read the annual report of the organization. The attendance was the largest in many years. The greatest interest was centered in the report of the president, George G. Brown, who also read the annual report of the organization.

In the election of officers, Mr. Brown was re-elected president. The report of the nominating committee was adopted unanimously. The other officers are: Andrew Edginger, first vice president; John H. Weiser, second vice president; executive committee, William R. Belmont, Miss Mary Luvall, John L. Leach, Mrs. W. M. Mullen, Mrs. W. B. Dixon, Dr. N. C. Newcomb, J. W. Bernheim, F. N. Hartwell, Richard Meacham, J. H. Parker, Herman L. Newcomb, John H. Hartmann.

Membership Campaign.

It was suggested that the society start a membership campaign for new members. The city to be the first to start in which a committee is to work. It is probable that this suggestion will be adopted by the executive committee as all the members seemed to favor the idea.

President's Annual Report.

The annual report of George G. Brown, president of the society, follows: To the members of the Kentucky Humane Society: The first meeting following the organization of your society was held October 1, 1908, and should be a very gratifying one to the founders of this society for the good work they inaugurated.

The last fiscal year, ending October 1, 1909, shows that the society has done as follows:

Lame, sore or ill-fated animals temporarily suspended from the streets, 235.
Put under care of veterinary, 235.
Sent to blacksmiths, 235.
Sent to county jail, 235.
Owned and driven of 999 animals were taken to their condition.

Animals used in the heavily-laden teams, 235.

Ordered better fed, 235.

Shirts and shoes covered for 235.

Hauled animals to their feet, 235.

Saddles and girths removed and pads adjusted for 235.

Old, worn-out animals destroyed, 235.

Checks lowered for 235.

Had two stable and five roads repaired, this being for the protection of the animals.

Animals examined around excavations, building sites, etc., 235.

Had water turned on at stockyards for 235,070 head of cattle, sheep and hogs.

Also inspected sheep pens and found conditions satisfactory.

Had conditions remedied at one disinfestation for the betterment of 1,190 head of cattle.

Stopped bullfight at armory.

Had warrants issued and persons arrested for abuse of animals, against whom there were assessed aggregating $1,152, of which $235 was suspended.

From Hand To Mouth.

All of this work was done at an expense of $1,152.50, the total receipts for the year having been $12.35 to begin the next year's work. The balance for the year ended October 1, 1909, was $1,140.15, or $1,140.15 less the $1,140.15 of the year 1907, $5. Thus it can readily be seen that the humane society is compelled to live from hand to mouth, and this condition often very distressing to the officers of the society, which it had more money to work on.

The above statement is practically what the society has done, but it does not include all its labors, because of the fact that it is a voluntary organization, and where the complaint is well founded, and where the complaint is not, it is a remedy to the complaint.

Sometimes very trivial complaints are made to the society which it does not undertake to correct.

I remember, for good many years ago, when hogs had privileges in our city that they do not now enjoy, that a very sympathetic old Irishman complained that the pig of his next-door neighbor was in great mental distress because of his companion, with which it had been dwelling for months in great harmony, had been removed and that the remaining pig was showing such evidence of loneliness that he felt that the humane society should furnish a companion. This, however, was not within its province.

First Complaint.

The first complaint before me as president of the society was for advice as to what should be done in a case involving a sheep and a goose. The secretary had for several days been receiving telephone calls from a man who was driving through the street a sheep attached to a small child's wagon, and the child was a goose. The complaints of this were so frequent that special effort was made to find the man and advise him as to the office. This was finally accomplished, and the explanation of hauling a goose around through the streets with a sheep for motive power, was given. The man was told that in advertising a cure-all for goose grease, he was quite alarmed at being required to come to the society's office and insist that he was not doing anything wrong and suggested that if he was not allowed to parade his sheep and goose through the streets that he be allowed to display them in some show window.

A Fine Distinction.

When the question was put up to me whether we should prosecute the poor old man or not, the question came to my mind as to the distinction between a sheep and a goat, and I doubted whether the law made such distinction. Therefore, my conclusion was that this was not a case for the Kentucky Humane Society to bring into court. However, the old man concluded as the secretary had, and he had not intended to do better than the secretary.

Many of those who are earnest supporters of the Kentucky Humane Society are in the organization have been "over the river," and it is with much sadness that we have seen the loss of one of our most active and worthy members as Mr. E. C. Boone, Mr. A. G. Munn, Frances Bennett, George M. Togg, W. C. Priest and R. J. P. Phel.

My long connection with the society has shown me how numerous are those who approved its good work and who are always willing to lend a helping hand in this connection it gives me pleasure to say that not only the present city authorities, but also those of the past have always aided us in any way they consistently could.

A Splendid Work.

Following the reading of the president's report, Capt. John H. Leathers, who for many years was president of the society, congratulated the members of the society on the work they had done.

"I have never known a society," he said,

"that has done as much good on so little money."

He declared that what the society now needed was more members. He said that it was surprising that in a city of a quarter of a million there should only be 30 members in the Humane Society. Capt. Leathers made the point that only 30 members in the Humane Society, which was adopted, that a memorial be prepared to the members who have died during the year.

The Rev. John McKridge, in his remarks, suggested that an effort be made to educate the children in the work and aims of the society. This could be done, he said, by lecturing to the children in the public library. The attendance was the largest in many years. The greatest interest was centered in the report of the president, George G. Brown, who also read the annual report of the organization.

Nothing is more brutalizing than perceiving cruelty to animals to go on. Nothing shows the yellow streak in one more than cruelty to animals. You are raising the tone of civilization."

Work Among Children.

Miss Ruth Hopper, editor of the Children's Department of the Courier-Journal, and who is best-known to her young readers as "Aunt Ruth," read a paper in which she is doing through the children's page in arousing the aid of the children. She was organized a Humane Society among the readers of her page, and has directed them to notify the officers of the Kentucky Humane Society of any cruelty to animals that has come to their notice.

The Women's Auxiliary.

One of the prime reasons for undertaking the work that the Humane Society does is to educate the children in the work and aims of the society. This could be done, he said, by lecturing to the children in the public library. The attendance was the largest in many years. The greatest interest was centered in the report of the president, George G. Brown, who also read the annual report of the organization.

The Women's Auxiliary.

Considerable attention has been given to the work of the women's auxiliary. A new type of fountain is to be in the future, and the present fountain has been cared for. One of the aims of the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

HARVEST HOME

Dinner Proves Most Unique and Delightful.

FIVE HUNDRED CITIZENS GATHER ABOUT FESTAL BOARD.

COMMERCIAL CLUB SECRETARY SERVES AS TOASTMASTER.

MANY WITTY SPEECHES MADE.

After the chickens had been fed, the cows milked and all of the stock watered, more than 500 representative citizens of Louisville bled themselves at 7 o'clock last night to the Galt House, where the first annual Harvest Home dinner of the Commercial Club was served. Turning aside their straw hats and the hayrack, the guests were met at the door of the spacious dining-room, which had been decorated to resemble a huge cornfield, by Hiram, Silas and Josh Jones, members of the reception committee, who extended a hearty welcome.

The Women's Auxiliary.

Considerable attention has been given to the work of the women's auxiliary. A new type of fountain is to be in the future, and the present fountain has been cared for. One of the aims of the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

The dinner, one of the good, old-fashioned kind, was given under the auspices of the membership committee of the club, of which Smith T. Bailey was chairman. The dinner was a success, and the interest in the campaign for new members, which will close Thursday, Harvest Home day.

NEW YORK BOND SALES.

(Reported by S. C. Henning & Co.)

10 to 10 1/2 (m.)	$5,000	90 1/2	American Tobacco Co.	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100
10 1/2 to 11 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
11 to 11 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
11 1/2 to 12 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
12 to 12 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
12 1/2 to 1 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
1 to 1 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
1 1/2 to 1 3/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
1 3/4 to 2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
2 to 2 1/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
2 1/4 to 2 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
2 1/2 to 2 3/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
2 3/4 to 3 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
3 to 3 1/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
3 1/4 to 3 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
3 1/2 to 3 3/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
3 3/4 to 4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
4 to 4 1/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
4 1/4 to 4 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
4 1/2 to 4 3/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
4 3/4 to 5 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
5 to 5 1/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
5 1/4 to 5 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
5 1/2 to 5 3/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
5 3/4 to 6 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
6 to 6 1/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
6 1/4 to 6 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
6 1/2 to 6 3/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
6 3/4 to 7 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
7 to 7 1/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
7 1/4 to 7 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
7 1/2 to 7 3/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
7 3/4 to 8 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
8 to 8 1/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
8 1/4 to 8 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
8 1/2 to 8 3/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
8 3/4 to 9 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
9 to 9 1/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
9 1/4 to 9 1/2 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
9 1/2 to 9 3/4 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100
9 3/4 to 10 (m.)	10,000	87 1/2	Am. T. & C. conv.	100	100	100

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

According to Chicago advice, Congressmen W. B. McKinley, of Illinois, representing Canadian insurance interests, had been in the Madison street railway and allied insurance systems for $6,000,000 and asked the city for a twenty-five year franchise, agreeing to spend $1,000,000 for the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise. The city has refused to grant the franchise.

The Best Financial Backing

Is your own bank account. Without money you are nobody. With money everybody smiles on you.

Make up your mind to open a Savings Account with us without delay.

The Louisville Trust Co.
S. W. Cor. Fifth and Market.

FIDELITY TRUST COMPANY

Capital - - $1,000,000
Surplus - - $1,000,000

210 Fifth Street

Receives money subject to check; pays interest on TIME and SAVINGS deposits, and performs duties in ALL FIDUCIARY CAPACITIES.

SHIP US. Established 1856.

Hides, Wool, M. Sabel & Sons

"OVER HALF A CENTURY IN LOUISVILLE"

Dealers in Green Salted, also Dry Hides, Horse Hides, Sheepskins, Ginseng, Roots, Beeswax, Tallow, Dried Fruits, etc. LOUISVILLE, KY.

BRIDGES, JONES & SONS, 100 S. FIFTH ST., LOUISVILLE, KY.

We solicit your shipment. WOLG BAGS SENT TO SHIPPERS WHO DESIRE TO SHIP US WOOL. Write for shipping tags.

FINANCIAL

PACIFIC Gas and Electric Common Stock

FOR INVESTMENT

Is dealt in by leading brokers and quoted in daily papers. One of the largest hydro-electric properties in America. Serving 60 per cent of California's entire population. Business increasing at a rapid rate.

Will show $14,000,000 gross earnings this year. Common stock earning 12 per cent. for 1939.

Full particulars, including map and price list, will be furnished on request.

E. H. MORGAN & CO.
Brokers, Louisville, Ky.

FINANCIAL

J. J. Hilliard & Son

248 FIFTH ST.

STOCKS AND BONDS

Investment Securities, Specialty. Private wires to Messrs. Waller, Brown, 77 Broadway (members of the New York Stock Exchange), and all principal markets.

W. L. Lyons & Co.
Established 1879.

STOCKS, BONDS, GRAIN, PROVISIONS, COTTON AND INVESTMENT SECURITIES

New York Stock Exchange, Louisville Stock Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade.

Direct Private Wires to All Cities.

LOUISVILLE National Banking Co.

FIFTH AND MARKET.

Money to Loan ON REAL ESTATE

Louisville Title Co.
124 South Fifth St.

GENERAL MARKETS.

Money to Loan ON REAL ESTATE

Louisville Title Co.
124 South Fifth St.

GENERAL MARKETS.

Safe Investments.

Paying 4 to 6 per cent. net. High-grade bonds. Non-taxable stocks. We will carry stocks in New York on right margin.

JOHN W. & D. S. GREEV

145 FIFTH STREET.

Cum. Phone 55. Home Phone 55.

Railroad and Street Railway Bonds

We have a choice line of bonds yielding from 4 to 6 per cent. Call or write us.

Almsted Brothers,
506 West Main Street.

Stocks and Bonds

New York stocks carried on reasonable margin.

L. W. GREEN

Room 18 Kenyon Building, Cum. Phone 552. Home Phone 557.

Wintersmith's Tonic will tone you up.

